The production you will see today, brought to life by Sam Mendes and Rob Marshall one of the most gifted directorial teams in the business first slinked onto the Roundabout stage in The show presented a dark and dazzling vision for the iconic musical, stripping away showbiz sheen and sparkle to reveal an unadorned, visceral core: in the jagged choreography and raw sensuality of this production, we find a story both stark in its judgment and mesmerizing in its empathy. But it is also because of this fact that they have been immortalized in Dominican lore, serving the role of the figures that gave the suppressed country a voice. When dealing with the next generation, instead of answering to the single patriarchal founder, trustees have to respond to several siblings and cousins.
