Computers gave rise to social media, which has led to cruel bullying at school, fake news, conspiracy plots, and the anonymity to mount vicious personal attacks—all of these seem as endemic as hacking, another insoluble problem created by technology. Two men are confronting each other in the middle of a field; between them is a small blackboard supported by an easel on which four lines of chalk writing are visible.

The New Heroes: The Chasm

They were talked about as though they had an important democratizing role: the idea was that modern highways allowed more people to appreciate the wonders of nature. Wie das Becken schwillt.
