Inter-Religious Dialogue: Philosophy and Theology silence of these authorities is not, however, to be regarded as a conclusive proof that such a place never existed. One of Wilber's greatest contributions is his "All Quadrant, All Level" map of human consciousness, which integrates what he calls the cultural value spheres beauty, truth, and goodness, or aesthetics, science, and ethics, or self, nature, culture, or I, It, We - the three quadrants with the Great Chain of Being - the levels of consciousness, from matter to mind to soul to spirit. I could detail the meticulous planning; the writing and re-writing of text that will never be read; the hours of researching and verifying the facts; the careful planning of colour balance and atmosphere; the sleepless nights putting paint to paper and the in-depth discussions of paper stocks, cover finishes and format variations. Pro tip: Use canned pineapple packed in juice not syrup.
